Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world,	have mercy on us.

You called a beloved servant into your service.

And you gave him the strength to proclaim your name to the world until death on the cross.

Let us pray.

Infinitely kind God, you, in your love, looked upon your beloved servant Ján and in him you showed your power, that is most evident in love and forgiveness.

Grant us, we pray, that at the intercession of Ján Havlík, we so faithfully lived our calling, that one day we may enter the kingdom of eternal joy, love and peace and we attract into it as many souls as possible, though Christ, our Lord. Amen.
